MOTION OF AMAZON.COM SERVICES LLC FOR LEAVE TO FILE RESPONSE
(September 9, 2022)

Amazon.com Services LLC (“ASL”) respectfully submits this motion for leave to file a response to the September 2 “Motion of Strategic Organizing Center Requesting Leave to Reply to Responses Opposing SOC’s Motion for Access to Non-Public Materials Under Protective Conditions” and the related “Proposed Reply of Strategic Organizing Center to Responses in Opposition to SOC Request for Access to Non-Public Materials Under Protective Conditions” (the “Reply”).

Although the Commission’s rules do not authorize a response as a matter of right, the Commission may accept such a pleading as a matter of discretion in appropriate cases. If the Commission finds good cause to consider SOC’s Reply, it should likewise find good cause to consider ASL’s response. Acceptance of ASL’s response will enhance the Commission’s ability to evaluate the arguments presented in this docket and help clarify the record.

No party will be prejudiced by granting this motion.

Respectfully submitted:
